

Questions to Enhance Seder

A step by step guide to help people feel as if they themselves went out from Egypt

Question 1

Why do you think that the Haggadah says "in every generation a person is obligated to oneself as having personally gone out of Egypt? Why do you think that this personal connection is so central to the holiday?

Question 2

Do you see yourself as having personally gone out of Egypt?

Question 3

Why is it important to tell the next generation our personal or family "Egypt stories"--stories of overcoming hardship?

Question 4

The Hebrew word for Egypt is "mitzrayim", which means narrow places. Egypt represents anything that is physically, emotionally, or spiritually challenging. What do you find physically, emotionally, or spiritually challenging?

Question 5

What makes it so hard to leave our own personal Egypt?

Question 6

How can helping other people be a way to help us deal with our own challenges?

