

10 Reflective Questions to Ask Yourself on Rosh Hashana

Looking back...

1. In what way have I become a better person this past year?
2. If I could change one thing I did this past year, what would it be?
3. What was a great kindness I did this past year?
4. What was my most inspiring moment this past year?
5. What am I most proud of from this past year?

Looking forward...

1. What is one way I can be a better friend this coming year?
2. What is one new thing I want to learn this coming year?
3. What piece advice can I give myself for this coming year?
4. What is one thing I hope to start or finish by this time next year?
5. What is one thing I'm looking forward to this coming year?