

A KINDNESS A DAY 365 WAYS TO MAKE THE WORLD A BETTER PLACE

THEME:
 Welcoming Guests
 Hachnasat Orchim

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
				1 Make friends with someone new to your school, workplace or neighborhood.	2 Welcome a new family in the neighborhood by inviting them for a Pesach meal.	3 Greet your guests when they come to the door.
4 Host a lunch-and-learn event on a topic of your choice.	5 Invite a neighbor over and take the time to get to know them better.	6 Bring breakfast or morning tea to share with your classmates or colleagues.	7 Plan a block party so everyone can get to know their neighbors.	8 Package up your leftovers to send home with your dinner guests.	9 Give your guests the attention they deserve.	10 Host visitors from abroad who need a place to stay.
11 Host your work colleagues for a barbecue.	12 Adopt and befriend a family who has recently immigrated.	13 Assemble welcome baskets for newcomers to your synagogue.	14 Sponsor a Shabbat dinner for new members of your synagogue. Make sure old and new members are interspersed.	15 Write a guide to Jewish facilities in your community to hand out to new people in the community.	16 Anticipate your guests' needs. Go out of your way to ensure that your guests have a pleasant stay at your house.	17 Invite an out-of-towner to your house for Shabbat.
18 Invite relatives to your house for a family reunion.	19 Establish a host-family program in your synagogue to help new families integrate.	20 Do not wait for someone to call and ask to come for a meal. Invite them yourself.	21 Offer to host guests by putting your name on the hachnasat orchim list at your synagogue.	22 Buy a special gift for your host to show your appreciation.	23 Host a family who are looking to move to your community.	24 Host a movie night with your family and friends.
25 If you have a pool, invite your neighbors over to swim.	26 Volunteer your home to local organizations that place visitors.	27 Host a shiur or learning event in your home.	28 Invite a group of singles for dinner to introduce them to one another.	29 Choose a favorite recipe to cook for your guests.	30 Take the time to show an interest in all of your guests.	